

Pearl Diver by Ashton Freeman

Let's investigate the lake together & then after we'll step into a too-small shower together & then after we'll hold our elbows in a twin bed together & then I'll pull you out to go look at the moon & keep you up until eleven moaning your name like it's mine & when you put your mouth on me you'll ask how I get hard like that & I'll tell you it's because I'm a pretty boy & then we'll wake up at 7:25 & I'll ask you to marry me using a plaque on a park bench & when I say your name it starts at my lips & finishes in the back of my throat & then I'll gargle salt water to find you sooner & then we'll do it all over again & again & again.
